New Madrid Mo. December 9th 1863

Lt. Col. A. A. G.
Comdg 2nd Mo. Mily. Vol.

Sir

I have the honor to inform you, that I arrived with my Company at New Madrid Mo. December 5th 1863 and reported the same evening to Capt. Schmitz of the 25th Mo. Mily. Col. Chester Harding having left for St. Louis, for duty, as ordered by Capt. Schmitz, who has command of this Post, I immediately took charge of the Fort here, which is a very formidable one, and all the public property pertaining thereto.

As regards recruiting at this place, of which I had some expectation to fill my Company, I have but little hope, the Provost Marshall at this Post offering $15.00 besides the usual bounty paid, has not succeeded in enlisting one within the past month, although I may succeed better, as soon as I have an opportunity to get posted in the County around here, which is according to reports rather thick with Guerrillas, there being besides the two Companies of the 25th Mo no Cavalry stationed here to pursue them.

Enclosed I send a Descriptive Roll of Sergeant Adam Renwick of my Company who is detailed on recruiting service at St. Louis.

Private Jacob Diedrich joined the Company at Cairo.

Very Respectfully
Your Obt. servt.
Wm. D. Fuller Capt.
2nd Mo. Mily. Comdg. Compy. "D"
